COMPLAINT

Atlantis Management Group LLC, AMG 10th Ave
Quickserve LLC, AMG Broadway Quickserve
LLC, and Berk Basatemir,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff LeeSandra Moore (“Plaintiff” or “Moore”), on behalf of herself and others similarly situated, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Levin-Epstein & Associates, P.C., upon personal knowledge as to herself and upon information and belief as to others, brings this complaint against Defendants Atlantis Management Group LLC, AMG 10th Ave Quickserve LLC, AMG Broadway Quickserve LLC (collectively, the “Corporate Defendants”) and Berk Basatemir (the “Individual Defendant”, and collectively with the Corporate Defendants, the “Defendants”), and states as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiff brings this lawsuit seeking recovery, for herself and all other similarly situated individuals, against Defendants’ violations of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. (“FLSA”), and violations of Articles 6 and 19 of the New York State Labor Law (“NYLL”) and their supporting New York State Department of Labor regulations.

2. Plaintiff seeks injunctive and declaratory relief and to recover unpaid minimum wages, spread-of-hours, liquidated and statutory damages, pre- and post-judgment interest, and attorneys' fees and costs pursuant to the FLSA, NYLL, and the NYLL's Wage Theft Prevention Act ("WTPA").

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has subject matter jurisdiction of this case pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216 (b), 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 28 U.S.C. § 1337, and has supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims under the NYLL pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

4. This Court has federal question jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 because Plaintiff's claims arise under the FLSA.

5. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c), because all events relevant to this action occurred in this District, and the acts and omissions giving rise to the claims herein alleged took place in this District.

- g. diminishing and/or transferring assets of the Corporate Defendants to protect his own interests; and
- h. other actions evincing a failure to adhere to the corporate form.

40. At all relevant times, Defendants were Plaintiff's employers within the meaning of the FLSA and NYLL.

41. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of employment, and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff's services.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

42. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals are individuals who have worked for Defendants in similarly-titled, hourly paid position, during the statutory period.

43. Plaintiff and other similarly situated individuals all shared similar job titles, training, job descriptions and job tasks, during the statutory period.

44. Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants.

45. Plaintiff was employed as a crew worker at Dunkin' 10th Ave. and Dunkin' Broadway, from on or around June 2014 to, through and including June 2018.

46. Plaintiff's work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

47. From approximately June 2014 to, through and including June 2018, Plaintiff worked three (3) days per week, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays: from approximately 10:00 p.m. to 9:00 a.m. or 10:00 a.m. (i.e., 11 or 12 hours per day), for a total period of approximately 33 to 36 hours during each of the weeks, respectively.

48. From approximately June 2014 to, through and including June 2018, Plaintiff was paid the prevailing minimum wage.

49. Throughout the relevant period, Defendants had a policy and practice commonly known as “time shaving”. Specifically, Defendants would only pay Plaintiff for some – but not all hours worked.

50. Specifically, Plaintiff was forced to “clock-out” at around 6:00 a.m., i.e., three (3) or four (4) hours before the end of their shift, which actually concluded around 9:00 a.m. or 10:00 a.m.

51. As a result, Plaintiff, and other similarly situated employees, were forced to work off the clock, without pay, during this period.

52. Defendants never granted Plaintiff with meal breaks or rest periods of any length.

53. Plaintiff was not required to keep track of Plaintiff’s time, nor to Plaintiff’s knowledge, did the Defendants utilize any time tracking device, such as sign in sheets or punch cards, that accurately reflected Plaintiff’s actual hours worked.

54. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff regarding wages are required under the FLSA or NYLL.

55. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

56. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff of Plaintiff’s rate of pay, employer’s regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL § 195(1).

57. At all relevant times, Defendants did not pay Plaintiff at the rate of one and one-half times their hourly wage rate for hours worked in excess of forty per workweek.

FLSA COLLECTIVE ACTION ALLEGATIONS

58. Plaintiff brings the First Claim for Relief as a collective action pursuant to FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b), on behalf of all non-exempt persons (including but not limited to crew workers) employed by Defendants on or after the date that is three years before filing of the Complaint in this case, as defined herein (“FLSA Collective Plaintiffs”).

59. At all relevant times, Plaintiff and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are and have been similarly situated, have had substantially similar job requirements and pay provisions, and are and have been subject to Defendants’ decision, policy, plan and common policies, programs, practices, procedures, protocols, routines and rules willfully failing and refusing to pay them at the legally required overtime wage for all hours worked in excess of forty hours per work week. These claims of the Plaintiff are essentially the same as those of the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs.

60. The First Claim for Relief is properly brought under and maintained as an opt-in collective action pursuant to under FLSA §16(b), 29 U.S.C. §216(b). The FLSA Collective Plaintiffs are readily ascertainable. For purpose of notice and others related to this action, their names and addresses are readily available from the Defendants. Notice can be provided to the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs via first class mail to the last address known to Defendants

61. Plaintiff reserves the right to re-define the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs prior to notice or collective certification, and thereafter, as necessary.

FIRST CLAIM (FLSA – Unpaid Minimum Wages, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq.)

62. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

63. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate the Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the FLSA, 29 U.S. Code § 206.

64. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the FLSA with respect to compensation of Plaintiffs.

65. Due to Defendants' violations of the FLSA, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, pursuant to the FLSA, all in an amount to be determined at trial. 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

SECOND CLAIM
(NYLL – Unpaid Minimum Wages, N.Y. Stat. § 650 et seq.)

66. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

67. Defendants willfully and intentionally failed to compensate the Plaintiff with the applicable minimum hourly wage in violation of the NYLL §650 et seq.

68. Defendants have failed to make a good faith effort to comply with the NYLL with respect to compensation of Plaintiff.

69. Due to Defendants' violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, is entitled to recover from Defendants, jointly and severally, their unpaid minimum wages and an equal amount in the form of liquidated damages, as well as reasonable attorneys' fees and costs of the action, in an amount to be determined at trial, pursuant to the NYLL § 663.

THIRD CLAIM
(NYLL WTPA– Failure to Provide Wage Notices)

70. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

71. The NYLL and the WTPA require employers to provide all employees with a written notice of wage rates at the time of hire.

72. In violation of NYLL §195 (1), Defendants failed to furnish to Plaintiff at the time of hiring, or whenever their rate(s) of pay changed, with a wage notice containing the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other, allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer in accordance with NYLL §191; the name of the employer; any “doing business as” names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer’s main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address, if different; the telephone number of the employer, and anything otherwise required by law.

73. Due to Defendants’ violations of NYLL §195 (1), Plaintiff is entitled to recover their liquidated damages, reasonable attorney’s fees and cost and disbursement of the action, pursuant to the NYLL §198 (1-b).

FOURTH CLAIM
(Violation of the Wage Statement Provisions of the NYLL)

74. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

75. With each payment of wages, Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with a statement listing each of the following the dates of work covered by the payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; the number of regular hours worked; the number of overtime hours worked, as required by the NYLL § 195(3).

76. As a result of Defendant’s violation of the WTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to damages of at least $150 per week during which the violations occurred.

FIFTH CLAIM
(NYLL – Spread-of-Hours Pay)

77. Plaintiff repeats and incorporates all foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

78. Defendant willfully failed to pay Plaintiff additional compensation of one hour's pay at the basic minimum hourly wage rate for each day during which the Plaintiff's shifts spread over more than ten (10) hours.

79. By Defendant's failure to pay Plaintiff spread-of-hours pay, Defendant willfully violated §650 et seq. of the NYLL and violated the supporting NYDOL regulations, including, but not limited to, 12 N.Y. C.R.R. §146-1.6.

80. Due to Defendant's willful violations of the NYLL, Plaintiff is entitled to recover an amount prescribed by statute, liquidated damages, reasonable attorney's fees and cost of the action and pre-judgment and post-judgment interest.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff, on behalf of herself and FLSA Collective Plaintiffs, respectfully requests that this Court enter a judgment:

- a. authorizing Plaintiff at the earliest possible time to give notice of this collective action, or that the Court issue such notice, to all persons who are presently, or have up through the extent allowable under the statute of limitations and including the date of issuance of court-supervised notice, been employed by Defendants as nonexempt employees. Such notice shall inform them that the civil notice has been filed, of the nature of the action, of their right to join this lawsuit if they believe they were denied minimum wages;
- b. certification of this case as a collective action pursuant to the FLSA;
- c. issuance of notice pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), to all similarly situated members

- of the FLSA opt-in class, apprising them of the pendency of this action, and permitting them to assert timely FLSA claims and state claims in this action by filing individual Consent to Sue forms pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), and appointing Plaintiff and their counsel to represent the FLSA Collective Plaintiffs;
- d. declaring that Defendants violated the minimum wage provisions of the FLSA, the NYLL and the NYDOL regulations;
  - e. declaring that Defendants violated the notice statement pay provisions of the NYLL and WTPA;
  - f. declaring that Defendant violated the spread-of-hours pay provisions of the NYLL and NYDOL Regulations;
  - g. awarding Plaintiff unpaid spread-of-hours;
  - h. awarding Plaintiff unpaid minimum wages;
  - i. awarding Plaintiff liquidated damages in an amount equal to the total amount of wages found to be due;
  - j. awarding unpaid wages under the NYLL and the New York State contract law;
  - k. awarding Plaintiff statutory damages as a result of Defendants' failure to furnish accurate wage notice pursuant to the NYLL;
  - l. awarding Plaintiff pre- and post-judgment interest under the NYLL;
  - m. awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees and the costs and disbursements of this action; and
  - n. Such other relief as this Court deems just and proper.
